

Senate Bill 483

Date published:
June 30, 1967

CHAPTER 53, LAWS OF 1967

AN ACT to temporarily waive the requirement that state aid payments may be made only if federal aid is available for aid to dependent children of unemployed parents.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

The stipulation in section 49.19 (4) (dm) of the statutes that "aid to dependent children of unemployed parents may be granted only so long as federal aid for this purpose is available to the state" is waived for the period beginning July 1, 1967, and ending August 15, 1967.

Approved June 28, 1967.
